Parents, Guardians, and Feldwood Supporters,

Fulton County Schools requires all Parents, Guardians, Uncles, Aunties, Grandparents, Older siblings, Etc. to complete the volunteer online training. This process allows for registered persons to attend school events such as field trips, classroom parties, field day and volunteering at the school. Without completion of this process you will not be able to attend such school events.

School events that do not require this process are PTA meetings, Community meetings, Open House, Sneak a Peek, Back to School event and Title I meetings.

How do I complete the volunteer online process?

1. Register at www.fultonschools.org
2. Select Community
3. Select Partners and Volunteers
4. Select REGISTER TO VOLUNTEER
5. Select Click here to begin the volunteer process
6. Complete the mandatory online training which takes 30 minutes 20 of those 30 minutes is an online mandatory child abuse reporting training which is required by the state of Georgia for all volunteers.
7. Complete the volunteer application which is current for 2 years. Any previous volunteers must reapply for this 2 year period.
8. Please allow 24 hours for your application to be processed before you visit a school to volunteer.
9. When you arrive at a school for your first volunteer assignment, please present your government identification (i.e. driver's license or state issued ID cards)

For additional information about volunteer registration contact Tara Penn at 470-254-7159 or penn@fultonschools.org you may also contact Tameka Mclain Title I Parent Liaison at Feldwood Elementary at 470-254-2001.

THIS PROCESS HAS TO BE COMPLETED EVERY 2 YEARS.
