

Teacher Feature: Ms. Bowen

By: Victoria de Oliveira and Victoria Bustillos

Our teacher feature for this month is Ms. Bowen!

The first question we asked her is which college she went to and she said "I went to University of Tennessee at Chattanooga." Then we asked her what her favorite holiday is? She replied "My favorite holiday is Christmas."

When we asked her why she wanted to be a teacher, she said, "I wanted to be a teacher, because I like to spend time helping kids learn."

The next question we asked her was what do you like doing outside of school and she replied, "watching sports."

When we asked her what her favorite restaurant is she said, "I love Di Paolo, and it has delicious Italian food"

The final question we asked her was if she was not a teacher at Northwood what would be her job be and she said, "I would be a retail manager."

Thanks for reading this month's teacher feature.

FASTT MATH

By: Kate Seoane and Olivia Haber

We interviewed Ms. White, Ms. Smith, and Ms. Combs.

- Ms. Smith likes Fastt Math because she believes repetition is key for learning math skills. Fastt Math is energizing and exciting for the kids.
- Ms. White said that it helps students master their facts and it's a fun and exciting way to learn.
- Ms. Combs said it was a great way for learning math skills.

We also interviewed Hayes from first grade in Ms. Sammon's class. He said he likes Fastt Math because it helps him with his math. His favorite part is the game at the end and he also said he goes every time he can.

THANKSGIVING TRADITIONS

By: Ella Jacobs, Laycee Boyd, and Elliot Shin

Today we will talk about our thanksgiving traditions!!

We will start with Ella's tradition. She stands on a roof and throws toilet paper off and one-person dresses up and dances on the roof.

Now we can move on to Laycee's tradition. She watches football every Thanksgiving and sits at the dining room table with her family and has a fun time every year!

Elliot's tradition is to go to different places all over the globe. He has an awesome time on the airplanes. We hope you and your family enjoy your very own Thanksgiving traditions!

Fall Fashion

By: Addy Kate Dusang

Fall is here. You need to wear warm clothes. Some of these clothes are sweaters, jackets, leggings, boots, jeans, and accessories. The type of sweaters you could wear are a button up, a wrap, and a sweatshirt. Leggings you could wear are sports and warm leggings. Jackets you could wear are a fluffy one and a big one. Great boots are snow boots and cozy boots. Jeans you could wear are jeggings and flexible ones. Long sleeves that are good are shirts and pajamas. The last thing is accessories which are hats, mittens, earmuffs, gloves, and hats. Hope you stay warm in the fall cold!

Let's Get Fit!!

By: Alisa U.

Jackson Rhodes answered some questions about how to stay fit. Jackson is in Fit Club so hopefully you get some good information from my article. Enjoy!

1. If someone doesn't like running or swimming, what should they do to stay fit? He answered and said, "They can play sports."
2. If you want to do one easy exercise per day, what is something easy to do? He replied, "You can do cross countries."
3. What are some fun ways to exercise? (games) He responded and said, "You can do Just Dance."
4. Which muscles in our bodies are most important to stretch? He said, "Your abs."
5. Finally, I asked how many hours should you exercise, to stay fit, per day? He responded, "You should be fit for 1 hour per day."
