

Good Evening Camp Creek Families,

This week Camp Creek Middle School will begin observing National Hispanic Heritage Month to honor and recognize a few of the extraordinary men and women of Hispanic descent who have helped shape the world; from painters and poets to astronauts, actresses, and Nobel Peace Prize winners.

We will also kick off Camp Creek's fully inclusive Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports system better known as PBIS. The targeted PBIS behavior for the month of October is: "Respect". Teachers will issue Warrior Bucks to students that demonstrate respectful behavior that can be used to purchase items in the PBIS store. Respectful students will also have an opportunity to participate in their grade level Snack-n-Chat during the week of October 22nd. Teachers that model and demonstrate respectful behavior will be recognized by students with a golden ticket to be used in drawing at the end of October.

This week is Custodian Appreciation Week. Our Custodial Team works hard to ensure that our school remains clean and presentable every day. Please show your appreciation to our custodial team.

Parents remember that there is no school from Thursday, October 4th through Monday, October 8th; students will return to school on Tuesday, October 9th. Finally, our Scholastic Book Fair ends on Friday, October 5th. Please go to the school website and shop for books online for your student.

Should you have any questions or concerns at any point this school year, please do not hesitate to call, email or come in to see me.

Kind Regards,

Jarvis Adams, Principal
