Answers will vary. Sample answer: Facts: Logging companies support clearcutting. Clearcutting destroys natural habitats. Opinions: However, they are wrong. This harmful process must be stopped.

Lesson 15
Thinking It Through
Answers will vary. Sample answer: Both passages are about the Hippo Roller. The main idea of the first passage is what the Hippo Roller is like. The main idea of the second passage is that people can buy Hippo Rollers for others. The second passage is about investing in Hippo Rollers to help others, and the first passage describes the Hippo Roller.
Coached Example
1. A
2. B
3. Answers will vary. Sample answer: The passages are different because one tells about the cacao plant and how it grows. The other tells about threats to the cacao plant.

Lesson Practice
1. A
2. B
3. D
4. B
5. Answers will vary. Sample answer: The details in the second passage give me more information about Evans Wadongo and his life. They tell about how and why Wadongo created the lantern. They also help me to understand how important Wadongo is to his community. His invention affected the lives of many people, and they consider him a hero.
6. C
7. B
8. D
9. C
10. Answers will vary. Sample answer: Readers know that Twain worked from an early age and that he had many jobs in different cities. Knowing that, it is easy to understand his excitement and joy to be traveling freely in the West.

Chapter 3
Lesson 16
Coached Example
1. Answers will vary. Sample answer: I feel that every child in every school should have access to computers.
2. Answers will vary. Sample answer: I think that animals would be better off in the wild and should not be held in captivity.

Lesson Practice
Answers will vary. Sample answer: In conclusion, school cafeterias should be required to provide low-fat and vegetarian lunch options. Not all students have the same eating habits.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. Students should include their main idea, arguing for or against grading systems in the box alongside Claim. They should place details supporting their ideas in the boxes alongside Reason. Finally, they should write a conclusion in the box alongside Conclusion.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should have a clear topic, show a point of view arguing for or against grading systems, support reasons for change with details, and have a solid conclusion in their responses. See the Lesson 16 Opinion Writing Rubrics after the Answer Keys.

Lesson 17
Coached Example
1. Answers will vary. Sample answer: Skinks are a group of lizards that are similar to snakes in many ways.
2. Answers will vary. Sample answer: Due process is the idea that the way the government uses the law has to be fair. It makes sure that every person is equal under the law. Due process says that the government has to follow the law just like citizens do. Due process protects people from unfair treatment by the government.

Lesson Practice
Answers will vary. Sample answer: The paragraph could explain what it meant for the court to agree with the Brown family.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. Students should write the name of a life-changing invention in the center oval. In the outer ovals, students should write ways that it changed people’s lives.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should have a clear topic, show the importance of the invention, support the main idea with details, and have a solid conclusion in their responses. See the Lesson 17 Informative/Explanatory Writing Rubrics after the Answer Keys.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. Students should write “Vegetable Gardens” in the center circle. In the outer circles, students should write details about the topic that support the practice of having local or home vegetable gardens.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should have a clear topic sentence about the importance of vegetable gardens, support it with reasons and details, and have a solid conclusion in their response. See the Lesson 17 Informative/Explanatory Writing Rubrics after the Answer Keys.

Lesson 18
Coached Example
1. Answers will vary. Sample answer: Christie went on a month-long vacation with her parents. Instead of camping in the forest, they decided to rent a house on the Oregon coast. At first, Christie was bored because the only things her parents wanted to do were read books and sleep. But, then one day while she was walking on the beach, she met a friend, Martha. Martha was very spirited. She suggested they go swimming in the frigid Pacific with its rolling breakers.

2. Answers will vary. Sample answer: The cold wind whipped against Amir’s skin. She was standing in the middle of a large field of rolling green grass. She was taking a walk, because she wanted to get away from her family for a while. She was enjoying visiting them, but she needed some time alone. Suddenly, she saw a figure in the distance. The person seemed to be wearing a red jacket, along with a black cap. She wasn’t sure who it was. Then the figure came closer. She saw it was her cousin, Ahmad. She was relieved. She had thought it was going to be her little brother—he had been bothering her all day. She and Ahmad kept walking, talking about what they could do during the rest of the week.

Lesson Practice
Answers will vary. Sample answer: As soon as Lionel yelled “three,” the two friends raced furiously down Blind Man’s Cliff. They were dead even midway down, but then Lionel burst forward and gained a small lead. Not to be outdone, Wayne pedaled faster and caught up to Lionel, causing yet another tie.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. In the first frame, students should write what animal Celia turns into. In the following two frames, they should write what happens to her afterward. In the last frame, they should write how the story resolves itself.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should write a narrative that tells which animal Celia turns into and what happens to her after the change. The response should include a setting, details, and a plot. See the Lesson 18 Narrative Writing Rubric after the Answer Keys.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. In the first frame, students should describe how the conflict in their story. In the following two frames, they should write what happens to the characters after the original story ends. In the last frame, they should write how the conflict in the new story is resolved.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should write a narrative that involves a new conflict, using the characters from “Campout at the Farm.” The response should include a plot, the setting(s), and details. It should also include a resolution to the conflict presented in the story. See the Lesson 18 Narrative Writing Rubric after the Answer Keys.
Lesson 19
Coached Example
1. Answers will vary. Sample answer: Matthew and Jason both "loved taking things apart and trying to put them back together." They both like challenges and solving problems. Matthew is quiet, while Jason "could talk from morning until night." Matthew "loved anything technical," while Jason would rather be outside being active.

2. Answers will vary. Sample answer: You can't always judge people by how they seem on the surface.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. Students should cite the character traits of both Grandma and Sydney, with details from the passage supporting the traits listed.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students should have a clear introduction in response to the prompt. Details from the passage should be included to support the character traits chosen to describe Grandma and Sydney. Students should also include a solid conclusion in their response. See the Lessons 19 and 20 Response to Texts Writing Rubric after the Answer Keys.

Lesson 20
Coached Example
1. Answers will vary. Sample answer: There are three things that you can do to prevent cavities. The first is to brush your teeth twice a day. Also, you should floss at least once a day. Finally, you should get a checkup at the dentist every six months.

2. Answers will vary. Sample answer: I know that the experts say to brush your teeth at least twice a day, but I don't know if that is enough. I've always brushed my teeth twice a day since I was old enough to hold a toothbrush, but my dentist finds cavities during every checkup. I think that you really need to brush your teeth more than twice a day.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. In the center oval, students should list the two methods: canning and freezing. In the outer ovals, students should include details about each method. For example: Canned food is stored in cool, dark spaces; Freezing is a faster process.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students' responses should have a clear introduction about the advantages of preserving food, should include details in the following paragraphs to describe food preservation by both methods, and should have a solid conclusion. See the Lessons 19 and 20 Response to Texts Writing Rubric after the Answer Keys.

Plan Your Writing
Answers will vary. In the center oval, students should list ways to stay healthy: eating probiotics and walking. In the outer ovals, students should highlight details about ways to stay healthy. For example: Walking is an exercise that can be done anywhere and at any time.

Write Your Response
Answers will vary. Students' responses should have a clear introduction about how to take responsibility for their health. Details in the following paragraphs should include specific ways to stay healthy. A solid conclusion should be included in the response. Section 2

| 28   | ELAGSE5RL1      | 3   | B              | Option B is the correct answer. It connects Thor's kindness to farmers, which the text explicitly discusses, to the farmers' welcoming of him. |
| 29   | ELAGSE5RL2      | 3   | C              | Option C is the correct answer. It ties the theme to Thor's ability to solve all of his problems, is the correct response. |
|      | Part A          |     |                | Option D is the correct answer. It supports the theme that Thor has the ability to solve all his problems. |
|      | ELAGSE4RL1      | 2   | D              | Part B                                                                 |
| 30   | ELAGSE5RL6      | 3   | B              | Option B is the correct answer because the passage is told from an omniscient, third-person perspective. |
